

[It is recognized that students should seek mentorship from multiple individuals/organizations. This mentoring map is a tool that can be used to map your current mentoring network, identify your unmet needs, and help plan how to expand your existing network. Some UNM organizations are listed, if you would like your organization listed please get in touch with grad.unm.edu]

GRADUATE STUDENT MENTORING MAP

Name:

Dept/Program:

ACADEMIC

Advising

Individuals who provide guidance on course selection, degree and program requirements, and milestones

Program/Project-Specific Guidance/Feedback

Individuals who provides guidance/feedback on research and scholarship activities (primary mentor, committee on studies, etc)

Sponsorship/Access to Opportunities

Individuals who provide connection to opportunities in teaching, fellowships, speaking engagements, internships, etc.

WELL BEING

Personal & Emotional Support

Individuals/groups/organizations that are supportive of your mental and physical well-being (family, friends, book club)

Accountability

Individuals to help you align your time with your priorities (are you focusing on what really matters)

Safe Space

Individuals you trust or environment where you can process, recover, and recharge

PROFESSIONAL

Professional Development

academic and career development, workshops

Graduate Support at the UNM CTL

Graduate Teaching Academy

Career Development/Guidance

Individuals who provide support for job planning and preparation (application review, interview preparation)

Office of Career Services

Intellectual Community

academic, social, cultural, and emotional support

PNMGC

Faculty-Graduate Mentoring Program

African American Student Services

American Indian Student Services

El Centro de la Raza

Global Education Office

LGBTQ Resource Center

Women's Resource Center