

Application Guidelines for	German (MA)
Application Deadlines	Fall (best consideration for assistantships and financial support): February 1st Fall (final deadline): April 1st Spring: October 1st
Website	http://fl.unm.edu
Contact Information	505.277.4771 Please consult website for information on current graduate administrator, graduate director, and program advisors.

APPLICATION CATEGORY	SPECIFIC INSTRUCTIONS
Educational Background	Please upload an up-to-date, unofficial copy of your transcript as part of your application. You will also need to send a sealed, official transcript to Graduate Admissions.
Program of Interest	Select: College of Arts & Sciences > Foreign Languages and Literatures>German Studies>MA German
Test Scores	International students must submit their scores from the TOEFL, IELTS, or Cambridge CPE or CAE
Letter of Intent	Your letter should describe your past work or study in the field and provide an account of the specific areas or topics you hope to study as a graduate student. Your letter should provide a description of your language skills, and a discussion of how your academic interests fit with departmental strengths.
Writing Sample	Submit an academic 8-15 page paper revealing your skills in literary or cultural study. A sample written in German is also required. This may be submitted along with a paper in English or as the sole writing sample.
CV/Resume	Include accurate and up to date contact information as well as information about academic training, teaching experience, research experience, as well as language skill and level in any of the following languages: German, French, Japanese, Chinese, Russian, Arabic, Classical Greek, Latin.
Relevant Coursework	Please provide a list of upper-level college courses taken in language study and in literary or cultural study; include the name of the institution where coursework was completed, as well as the date the coursework was completed.
Video/Audio Link	Optional. Please be in contact with the Graduate Director about whether or not to submit a sample of your oral proficiency in one of the following languages: German, French, Japanese, Chinese, Russian, Arabic.
Assistantship Interest	Please state whether you are interested in a teaching assistantship and describe your relevant skills and experience, such as knowledge of a language or experience teaching writing.
Recommendations	Three (3) letters of recommendation are required. Letters should be written by professors or scholars who can attest to your abilities in analyzing literary and cultural works as well as your language proficiency. All letters must be submitted online by your recommenders. If for some reason your recommender cannot submit a letter online, please contact the FLL Director of Graduate Studies to explain the situation.